GIRLS GETAWAY

Look no further than Columbus for your next girls' getaway weekend. You can tap your creative side by making wine and designing your own T-shirt, relax at the spa and more. It's a fun way to reconnect with your girlfriends.

DAY ONE

Spend the day in the Short North Arts District, which houses one of the best collections of art galleries between New York and Chicago. The Short North also is filled with trendy boutiques, eclectic specialty stores and fine and casual dining.

Design your own one-of-a-kind T-shirt at Substance, a boutique with unique brands and clothes designed by owner Christina Getachew and her staff. Groups of five or more can handpaint or embellish the shirt of your choice.

Create your own wine from start to finish at Camelot Cellars on-premise winery. Begin at the fermentation process, then bottle, cork and even design the label for your own private wine reserve.

Have fun during dinner in the Short North

Enjoy dinner in the Short North. Your choices include cuisines ranging from Pan-Asian to All American. Later, kick back at one of the many happening bars in the Short North. For a more quiet night, sip on a glass of wine at the Burgundy Room, known for its extensive wine list, or grab a coffee or cocktail at MoJoe Lounge.

Explore the Short North

DAY TWO

Eat breakfast at the North Market, a public market filled with unique—and delicious—souvenirs. Watch as chocolates are hand-dipped or taste gourmet ice cream created with out-of-the-ordinary ingredients such as lavender and fresh ginger. Call ahead to take a cooking class in The Columbus Dispatch Kitchen.

Explore Easton Town Center, one of the Midwest's top shopping, dining and entertainment destinations. You'll find Macy's, Nordstrom and hundreds of specialty stores, along with one of the city's best collections of restaurants and entertainment venues.

Orchestra and Broadway Across America—Columbus.
